

Location

The University of Shizuoka is north of the scenic Nihondaira Plateau, 307 meters above sea level. To the east of the university rises spectacular Mt. Fuji, the highest mountain in Japan. The university forms the nucleus of an important educational and cultural zone, along with The Shizuoka Prefectural Central Library and The Shizuoka Prefectural Museum of Art, both within walking distance of the campus.

Rodin House

Shizuoka Prefectural Museum (Shizuoka City)

Mt. Kuno Toshogu Shrine (Shizuoka City)